

CDM for Site Managers with Scaffold Safety Inspection

- DURATION: 1 Day.
- RATIO: Maximum 10 Candidates To 1 Instructor.
- WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Any person who has responsibilities under the legislation listed below, specifically site managers wishing to broaden their knowledge of health and safety and ensure full compliance with current legal requirements including CDM Regulations.
- AIM: To provide the candidate with a good basic knowledge of their organisations and their own and others duties under health and safety legislation.
- OBJECTIVE: Successful candidates will demonstrate a good understanding of an organisations duties under the regulations enabling them to effectively contribute to the implementation of health, safety and welfare on site.

COURSE CONTENT

- { The legal duties of the employer and employee under the Health And Safety At Work Act
- { Production and maintenance of records and their importance
- { Responsibilities of:-
  - Clients;
  - Designers;
  - Planning Supervisors;
  - Principal Contractors;
  - and Sub Contractors under the CDM Regulations
- { Structure and Content of the:-
  - Pre Tender Stage Plan
  - Construction Phase Plan
  - and Safety File Documents under the CDM Regulations
- { Scaffold safety standards and inspection
  - Practical inspection of scaffolds and detection of built in faults, including inspection and fault identification of independent scaffolds, mobile towers, builders' hoists and system scaffolds of various types
  - Maintaining certificates and registers in accordance with current statutory regulations

Times: 9.00am to 4.30pm, potential dates - 30/1/2001, 6/2/2001, 27/2/2001

Certification: C&G Safety & Environmental Limited

Venue: Station House Training Centre, Stonehouse, Gloucestershire.

Cost: £525.00 inclusive of course notes, scaffold set up, pre-inspection and lunch

---